Overview

Why?
Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.

What?
The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service we provide to you. This information can include:

- Social Security number
- Account balances
- Investment experience
- Income
- Transaction history
- Account transactions

When you are no longer our customer, we continue to share your information as described in this notice.

How?
All financial companies need to share customers’ personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share their customers’ personal information, the reasons JFS chooses to share, and whether you can limit this sharing.

Who we are

Who is providing this notice?
JFS Wealth Advisors, LLC (JFS)

What we do

How does JFS protect my personal information?
To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

How does JFS collect my personal information?
We collect your personal information, for example, when you:
- Enter into an investment advisory contract
- Open an account
- Tell us about your portfolio
- Provide us with your income information
- Deposit money
- Seek financial planning or tax services

We also collect your personal information from other companies.

Why can’t I limit all sharing?
Federal law gives you the right to limit only:
- Sharing for affiliates’ everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness
- Affiliates from using your information to market to you
- Sharing for non-affiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.

Definitions

Affiliates
Companies related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and nonfinancial companies.
- JFS’ affiliates include Focus Operating, LLC.

Non-affiliates
Companies not related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and nonfinancial companies.
- JFS does not share with non-affiliates so they can market to you.

Joint marketing
A formal agreement between non-affiliated financial companies that together market financial products or services to you.
- JFS does not jointly market.
